

On a sheet of paper you can tear out and turn in:

Think about Milgram's experiments and think about our "assessing responsibility" activity, write a response that explains who you feel is responsible for the holocaust (SS, average citizens, other countries who knew what was going on), and the system you use to assess responsibility.